

IPSL GLOBAL INSTITUTE AT NUNM

IPSL Visa Procurement Liability Policy

- I understand it is my responsibility to complete the required steps to obtain a visa, if necessary, and to make sure I have the correct visa documents before departure from the US. I also understand that it is in the sole and independent discretion of the foreign Consulate or Embassy to decide whether, when, and with what limitations to grant any and all visas, and neither IPSL nor any of its employees or affiliates can alter the outcome of this process in any way.
- I understand that the complexity of my visa process depends on my particular situation (e.g. however many terms I am abroad, my study abroad location for each term, my whereabouts while applying for the next visa, etc...), and any assistance I might receive from IPSL is in no way a guarantee that I will receive any required visa.
- I agree that I will begin the visa application process (if required for my program) as soon as the visa regulations allow.
- I agree that I will read thoroughly and follow the most updated visa requirements that are available from the Embassy or Consulate in my jurisdiction.
- I agree that I must inform IPSL staff of my intended dates of departure from the U.S. and to remind IPSL staff members if the visa and any other travel documents have not arrived by two weeks before my intended date of departure. I also understand that I must send a copy of my visa to IPSL once I receive it.
- I understand that any required visa letters (e.g. Thailand, Italy, Ecuador, etc...) for my visa application come directly from IPSL partner institutes abroad and that it is my responsibility to procure any letter(s) from them directly. IPSL provides the contact information for this process.
- I agree that failure to secure my visa on time or at all WILL NOT release me from my contractual and financial obligations to IPSL. I have read the conditions of the Visa Responsibility Statement and my e-signature below indicates that I understand and agree to them.
