Michele Price
Michele V. Price is Emeritus Director of Study Abroad, Western Oregon University (WOU), where she worked in international education for over 20 years, and she now is owner of Michele V. Price Consulting: Solutions for Education Abroad. She has served as an administrator and program evaluator for study abroad programs around the world. With her colleague, Victor Savicki, Professor of Psychology, Emeritus, WOU, she continues research in the area of study abroad student reflection. Their work has appeared in several publications.

Nena Baker, MFA
Nena Baker is a nonfiction author and licensed private investigator who lives in Portland, Oregon. A longtime investigative journalist, Nena holds a BA from Lewis & Clark College, where she participated in study abroad, and a MFA in creative nonfiction writing from Goucher College.

Billie Courtney, RN
Billie Courtney works as a pediatric neurosurgical nurse at Randall Children’s Hospital in Portland, Oregon. She has worked as a registered nurse for 25 years. In her free time she enjoys spending time with her family, hiking and quilting.

Barbara Weiss
Barbara is an Oregon native, who left many times to pursue opportunities in LA, San Francisco, Tokyo and Berlin—but always kept coming back to Portland.
Professionally she is a marketing and communications strategist and writer—outside of work, she devotes all her spare time to equestrian activities, climbing, canyoneering, sailing, encaustic painting and cooking.

Paul Newton, JD, CIP
Paul Newton is the Senior Research Regulatory Specialist at Legacy Research Institute in Portland, Oregon. He received his legal training from the Santa Clara University School of Law. Prior to working in the research ethics field, Paul spent fifteen years as a criminal defense lawyer. Since 1998, Paul has been involved in the bioethics field, working with numerous research ethics boards across the country.